UNIQUE TICKET BOUGHT AT THE MUSEUMS

The unique ticket:

- is released in two options:
 - Full/Single 15€
 - Family 35€ - It comprises: 2 adults and 3 minors max. In case of a larger family group, the minors in excess will be counted as single reductions according to the fee regulations of each museum.

Exceptionally, the ticket also includes the exhibition Leonardo in Vinci. At the origins of the Genius – Vinci (FI) – from April 15 to October 15 2019

- It is nominal, personal, and not transferable. At the emission, name and family name of the owner must be written in the correspondent field, together with the date of purchase. In the Family Ticket, one of the two adult names must be written on the passport. If requested from the museum staff, the ticket must be exhibited jointly with a valid identity document.
- It is constituted by a passport and a QR code; they must be both carefully conserved. In case of theft, loss, non-use, or damages that prevent the electronic reading of the QR code, the ticket will not be substituted or refunded.
- Contains the list of the adherent museums and 5 pages dedicated to the stamps that “certify the passage” of the visitors (the museum staff will always refer to electronic reading of the QR code).
- Last 365 days from the date of purchase.

- It is not valid for temporary exhibitions (other than those mentioned above), special days, events, or opening periods that differ from the normal costs table of the museums.

WARNINGS

Museum System Empolese Valdelsa Diffused Museum declines all the responsibilities linked to hour variations or difference of prices, if not promptly communicated by the museums.

Before visiting the museums, we ask you to check the official web site of each museum or Municipality to check openings and the timetables.

If the museum is closed for exceptional reasons (strikes, festivities, etc.) or offers free entry, the validity and the duration of the passport does not change and the ticket is not refunded.

Currently, the fast-track option is not comprised in the ticket.
